Moving Forward For Texas

ONE

Many of you have heard me say, get “ONE new member per member”. Well it is starting to work, I have had numerous conversations with 2A-1 Lions about the idea and thus far we are 3 new members strong. Congratulations to PDG Russell, while at a auto dealership he mentioned to the credit manager that he was a Lion and the credit manager said his first pair of glasses came from the Lions ,and then Russell asked the question would you like to become a Lion and now we have a new member.

Zone Chair Lion Theresa Cain should also be congratulated on inviting a longtime friend who has been reluctant join by introducing her to the fun side of being a Lion at a club picnic. The friend had fun and asked and got answers to many things that Lions do.

Last, DG Keith invited and is proud to say his daughter is becoming a San Angelo Downtown Lion. This was an easy one for DG Keith. But,I promise you I will recruit 1,2,3,4,5 or more before the year is up.

I am sure there have been other prospects that were asked and became members in the last few weeks. Please let me know by phone, 325-656-3252, email keith.perrine@hotmail.com, mail 4912 Mariner Terrace, San Angelo, TX 76903.

“ONE new member per member” it can be done ask family members, friends, business associates, fellow employees anyone can be a Lion if they have a giving heart. Just get ONE.

In Memoriam – PIP Everett “Ebb” J. Grindstaff

Ballinger, Texas will continue its small-town, everyday way of life, but it will not be the same without one of its most prominent and beloved citizens, Everett J. “Ebb” Grindstaff. Ebb passed from this earth to his new home on Monday, July 8, 2019, at the age of 88.

Ebb was born May 7, 1931, in Abilene to E. C. and Atha (Porter) Grindstaff. He grew up in Ballinger and graduated from Ballinger High School. He married Jeannette (Jay) White on April 3, 1954, in Ft. Worth.

A graduate of Baylor University with a BBA degree in business, and an LLB degree in law, Ebb joined the Army and served in Japan in counter-intelligence during the Korean Conflict. He returned to Ballinger and became a partner in the law firm of Grindstaff and Grindstaff with his father, E.C. “Judge” Grindstaff. Ebb was a candidate for Texas State Representative in 1956 and 1968.

An attorney in Ballinger since 1956, Ebb was appointed City Attorney in November of 1957 and remained in that office until he retired in January 2018, after 60 years of service. He continued his private practice, even during his time in the hospital, until his death.

A devoted member of Lions Club since 1956, Ebb was responsible for promoting the Juvenile Diabetes Program in Texas in 1969-1971. This program continues and includes the American Diabetes Association. The Lions State Office and Museum in Kerrville will be named in honor of Ebb.

Ebb became deeply involved in Lions Club International and served as International President in 1982-83. One of the leading international programs passed that year was the Journey for Sight. The Lions have always been involved in sight programs since the 1925 challenge of Helen Keller to be “Knights of the Blind.” Ballinger has continued this program over the years. Ebb also encouraged the Drug Education Program to “Just Say No to Drugs” endorsed by Nancy Reagan.

During his lifetime, Ebb traveled 50 countries and met hundreds of influential leaders, including President Sadat of Egypt, Prime Minister Begin of Israel, Mayor Jacques Chirac of Paris, France, who went on to become the President of France, U.S. presidents, Lyndon Johnson, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, and George Bush, as well as Pope John Paul II. Yet, Ebb treated the people of Ballinger, or people anywhere, with the same respect, kindness, and integrity as the dignitaries.

Ebb has written two books, LION Crossing the Sinai, and Texas Lions Celebrating 100 Years. He was finishing his third book, a biography. His wish that this book be completed will be fulfilled.

For continuing efforts on behalf of Lionism, Ebb received the Ambassador of Good Will Award (the highest honor bestowed upon association members), the Distinguished Service Award of the American Diabetes Association of 1983, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation 1983 Humanitarian Award for his work in helping diabetics worldwide, the Dr. Charles Best Award from the American Diabetes Association in 1984 (the highest award of that association), the President’s Volunteer Action Award from President Ronald Reagan, and two Extension Awards. He is a Melvin Jones Fellow, a Jack Welch Fellow of the Lions Camp, a Texas Lions Foundation Fellow, and has received numerous other awards.

From 1972 to 1975, Ebb was one of 15 State Bar of Texas Directors. He was a Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and served on the insurance committee while a director. During his tenure, both the Health and the Professional Liabilities Insurance Programs began and/or were initiated. He was a Life Member Counselor at Baylor Law School.

Ebb was a member of the Ballinger Industrial Foundation for 25 years and was named Ballinger Citizen of the Year twice. He was a member of the Upper Colorado River Authority for 30 years and served 19 years as past chairman of that organization. He was past president of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce, past district chairman and past district commissioner of the Tri-Rivers District of Concho Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America.

An avid golfer, Ebb continued playing until he entered the hospital. He would have played nonstop if the hospital had a putting green. His numerous golf buddies will remember his game and his humor for years to come. He followed all sports on television and was in the bleachers, on the course, in the field, or in the gym for Ballinger athletics as often as possible.

Ebb established what he called his “Legal Eagles,” which consisted of girls (and one boy) from Ballinger High School who worked during their last two years of high school as helpers and aides in his law office, either after school and/or during the summer. His display of work ethic and integrity were instrumental for the advancement of these young people in the business world.

With character and principles instilled by his parents, Ebb was a Lion’s Lion, a leader with a servant’s heart, a great teacher, an inspiration, and a wonderful friend. He touched the lives of people around the world and connected with people from all walks of life. He epitomized the Lions Club motto, “We serve.” A devout Christian, he was a member of the First Baptist Church of Ballinger where he served as a deacon.

Ebb is survived by his devoted wife, Jay, of Ballinger; son, Jeff Grindstaff of San Angelo; and daughter, Michelle Moussa of Dallas. Also surviving are four grandchildren, Will Grindstaff of Lubbock and Kate Grindstaff of San Angelo and their mother Elizabeth Grindstaff of College Station, Tanner Moussa of New York, and Mackenzie Moussa Lewis and husband, Austin, of Dallas; and favorite brother-in-law, Judge Albert White of Hico.

Donations may be made to Texas Lions Camp, Texas Lions Museum and State Office, Ballinger Memorial Hospital, Carnegie Library, Meals on Wheels, or First Baptist Church of Ballinger.

Ebb, we were proud that you were part of our District. We will miss you dearly as a friend, a mentor and as a Lion. You will always be in our hearts.

Chocolate, French Fries & Hope for the Future
By Vivienne Dragun

Every year, the Midland Northside Lions Club sponsors a student to travel abroad for a month during the summer, and last fall, when I found out I had been selected as that student for 2019, I was very excited. I envisioned a fantastic opportunity to expand my horizons of independence and broaden my knowledge of cultures vastly different from the one I know. I chose to go to Belgium because it seemed ideally located in the center of Western Europe, bordering France, the Netherlands, Germany, and Luxembourg. To me, it would be the perfect place to find a wide variety of new lifestyles, languages and foods.

As the trip approached, so did my apprehension. I was about to travel alone to live with people I had never met in a country I knew very little about. As a bit of a homebody, this trip was definitely way out of my comfort zone. I was planning to stay in Belgium for a month, far longer than I have ever been away from home before. I was unsure if I actually wanted to leave as the day of my departure came closer. However, despite my fears, I boarded my plane into Brussels on June 28, and flew into what I would soon find to be the best experience of my life.

When I arrived, I was greeted by my first host family, the Van Wouterhem's and a second exchange student from Taiwan named Annie. This family took us all over, from Kortrijk's famous city walls, to the castle and churches of Ghent, and showed Annie and me the impressive amount of culture and history that was packed into this tiny country. I ate french fries with almost every meal, learning in the process that they actually originate not from France but Belgium. We visited the beaches of both the Netherlands and Belgium, and went wakeboarding in a tiny but picturesque lake. At the end of my first week, I teared up as I departed to join my next host family, but I knew I would forever stay in touch with them.

With the next family, I explored the university town of Leuven, hiked in the woods to an ancient stone monument, and took strolls through city squares and parks in Leuven and Oudenaarde. We went on a shopping spree to different chocolate shops all around Kortrijk, and I tried so many different types of truffles, mousses, and bon-bons, I was absolutely stuffed. Once again, leaving my family at the end of my second week was just as sad as the first time because of the incredible generosity and care they had shown me.

For the last two weeks of the trip, I went to a Lions Youth Exchange Camp in Brussels with 34 other students from all over the world. Although many in number, it didn't take long for us all to bond in a way that I had never known before. Despite our extremely diverse backgrounds, with more than 24 nationalities present, every person in the group created bonds of friendship through crazy team building activities and scavenger hunts in fields and forests.

Several times we traveled out of Brussels to surrounding cities to be hosted by the local Lions Club. They arranged activities, tours and meals for us. We visited the medieval town of Bruges, walked the diamond district in Antwerp, toured the landmarks of French-speaking Liege, kayaked on the lake in Lisse Bergen, and watched the Belgian National Day parade in Brussels. We crossed the border into Luxemburg and spent the night at a youth hostel, where unfortunately, a heat wave descended with no air conditioning to alleviate the heat. I now know that 40° Celsius is equal to 104° Fahrenheit! That was one uncomfortable night. But it made for another shared experience that brought us even closer together.

The two weeks I spent at that camp created not only some of the best memories but also some of the best friendships of my life. The opportunity that was given to me by the Lions Club is one that I will never forget. I saw young people from all over the world join together in empathy and love. I was struck by how students from countries that are typically considered political opponents formed positive friendships with each other. To me this demonstrates that through amazing, international programs like the Lions Club Youth Exchange, my generation is discovering a new way of relating to others, based on understanding rather than discord. So even past the amazing adventures and places that I will never forget, this trip gave me hope for the future of a peaceful world.

Youth Exchange Program Germany- Liberty Taylor

Ever since I found out about my German ethnicity, I've wanted to visit Germany. Thanks to the Midland West Side Lions Club I had the chance to do that. My mother is a member of the West Side Lions Club and we always participate in many activities like the back to school bash. Every holiday we deliver food boxes and I was even the president of the Venturing Crew. When I was told that I was chosen to go to Frankfurt, Germany, I was ecstatic. This would be my first time overseas. The process for getting ready was the easy part; telling my mom goodbye was one of the hardest.

When I arrived in Frankfurt, my first host family picked me up. As we were driving home, I looked out the car window and the view of the town was beautiful; it's not like anything you see in the pictures online. It was so green and the city was alive. Their houses were different from the houses in America. Our houses expand in length, their houses expanded in height, with spiral staircases. My host family was vegetarian, so we only ate bread and cheese for every meal. I had another girl, named Kelly, from Virginia stay with us too. She was very nice and each day we grew closer. For the course of three days that we stayed with this family we hiked up many steep hills, and saw many castles. We went shopping around in Frankfurt, and we went to the zoo.

After the three days were over my host mom dropped Kelly and me off at our second host mom's work. She worked in tourism at Thomas Cook. That day we were meeting another American named Luke. He was from Wisconsin. He was hanging out with Kelly and me for the day since his host family had to work. When we went home my second host mom's house was nice. We had the choice of separate bedrooms or our own apartment. Of course, we chose the apartment. For those three days we went to different cities in Germany, like Rudesheim am Rhein, Hessen, and Heidelberg. We tried schnitzel, which is a famous dish in Germany, and went shopping.

The final two weeks we had to stay in a hostel with other Lions Exchange Program youths. They were from all over the world like Israel, Estonia, Norway, Russia, and Italy to name a few. Everyone got very close to each other, we saw each other as family. We did many activities together. We went to open concerts, to museums, and ate ice cream together. The second week's highlight was an adventure in ziplining. When we all had to leave, everyone took it very hard. We all cried and hugged each other for what seemed like forever.

The flight home was quick. I was just excited to see my mom. I would recommend anyone to go overseas when they have the chance. It's a life changing moment you'll never forget.

To My Fellow Lions,

Lion Juanita and I would like to thank you, the Lions of Texas, for your support, vote and now Endorsement as your International Director Candidate for MD-2 Texas.

This Texas Endorsement of our candidacy is good for the next three years.

Your overwhelming support for me and Lion Juanita is very special to us. We are very blessed to have such great friends. The theme of Team Tijerina shows the unity of service and represents the support of my family and the support that you, our Texas Lions Family, have demonstrated.

As we now move our campaign forward, I would like to share with you our plans for the International Convention in Milan, Italy this July of 2019 and for the International Convention in Singapore in July of 2020.

As the MD-2 Texas Endorsed Candidate, my name will be presented for consideration before the nominations committee of Lions Clubs International in Milan, but I will ask for my name to be withdrawn at that time which will allow for the full and stronger consideration of our candidacy in Singapore in July of 2020.

I will need your full support and attendance at the International Convention in Singapore in July of 2020. At that time, as we move the campaign forward, I am confident that I will have the backing of Lions International and will become your next International Director from MD-2 Texas.

I would also like to congratulate Council Chairperson John Landrum, District 2-X1 Governor Keith Murray, the MD-2 Council for 2018-2019 and all of the Texas Leadership for an outstanding State Convention in Waxahachie, Texas this past weekend. All of the Lions attending experienced great fellowship.

I would again like to thank each of you for your continued support and look forward to working alongside you with Helping Hands as we continue to move our service in Lionism forward.

Please remember, Team Tijerina is always here to help in any way we can.
